Sandra Ramos: Historias de Ayer y Hoy (La vida sigue igual).
Histories from the past and the present days (Live is still the same)
Aglutinador, La Habana. Oct. 13 - Nov., 2018.

As Sandra Ramos declares:

“ My work is playful and ironic, intellectually connected to historical figures, popular characters of world literature and illustration, for that purpose I recycle images and stories with moral value as Pinocchio, Alice in Wonderland, as well as references to Greek mythology, Philosophy, Science and religion, through a visual reinterpretation of all this in terms of a contemporary context”.

Where does Sandra’s frequently used characters come from? What is the origin of such histories represented on her lifetime engravings artworks? This’s an opportunity to see some of her never exhibited drawings from her scholar years at San Alejandro Academy.
